NEW MEXICO NEWS

Governor Curry has appointed George R. Craig, of Albuquerque, and Charles R. Glasgow, of Colfax, Colfax county, notaries public.

Threshing is the order of the day at Maxwell, and the farmers are quite busy taking care of the grain. Oats are running from 40 to 80 bushels to the acre.

Charles Vogt and family have left Raton for Dallas, S. D. where they will make their future home. Mr. Vogt having been one of the lucky ones in the recent drawing for the Rosebud agency lands.

H. Coleman, who had been in charge of the fire department wagon at Raton since it was first installed there, left the Gate City last week for Springer to accept the position of deputy warden in the territorial reform school.

Morris Bergelin and A. L. Bird have each run an attachment on what is left of the personal property belonging to the American Mines company, limited, in the Hillsboro district. The property of the company is better known as the Traves property.

The Chicago & Santa Fe Smelting and Mining company has filed a certificate in the office of Secretary Nathan Jaffa, at Santa Fe, designating Jicarilla, Lincoln county, as its headquarters, and Arnold H. Norton, of Jicarilla, its New Mexico agent.

Suit was brought at Santa Fe in the district court for San Juan county by J. W. Wiley vs. P. M. Salmon, asking for $250 damages for the trespassing of defendant's goats in an orchard in the course of which apple and cherry trees were damaged and 25 boxes of apples destroyed.

The Brotherhood of American Yeomen held their first meeting in Raton last week in the Odd Fellows' hall with a list of about forty applications. The Brotherhood of American Yeomen was organized thirteen years ago at Des Moines, which is now the headquarters for all the lodges of this order.

The Hobbs tract of land east of Maxwell has been sold to parties from the east through F. C. Edwards, of Kansas City. This tract sold at $5.40 per acre and this is considered a high price for grazing land. It is understood that the property will be improved, but not put on the market for two or three years.

The case of Michael O'Neill vs. Fred J. Otero, receiver, was argued and submitted to Judge McFie in chambers at Santa Fe. The suit involves a number of mining claims near the Cash Entry mines at Cerrillos, Santa Fe county. Colonel E. W. Dobson of Albuquerque, appeared for the receiver, and Hanna & Wilson for O'Neill.

Rev. Frank W. Otto, recently of Rockford, Colo., and chosen by the Methodist conference to succeed Rev. J. C. Rollins in the pastorate of the First Methodist church of Albuquerque, delivered his first sermon at the morning service at the church yesterday, taking as his subject, "Jacob's Well." Rev. Mr. Otto has the reputation of being an able minister and efficient church executive.

J. H. Spillman, seventy years of age, and uncle of J. P. Stone, president of the Citizens' National bank of Portales, committed suicide a mile from that town, last Saturday, by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. Mr. Spillman had gone to the Stone farm as usual after some cows, and when he failed to return a search was instituted. Spillman was found dead with the six-shooter lying by his side and a note telling that he had decided to end his life. As the deceased was supposed to be in comfortable circumstances it is believed that ill health was the cause of his act. He had been at Portales only a short time.

Another bank was incorporated Friday at Santa Fe. This time it is the Clovis Bank and Trust company of Clovis, Curry county. The capitalization is $40,000, divided into 400 shares. The incorporators are: J. S. Hayden, president 50 shares; A. D. Piersall, vice-president, 50 shares; C. A. Mason, cashier, 130 shares; L. Forney, assistant cashier, 130 shares; Sarah E. Burns, 10 shares, the last named not being a director.

The gins at Carlsbad and Loving have just started for the season. The picking of cotton has been in progress for some time, and enough cotton is on hand to keep the gin running for indefinitely. The acreage of cotton this season was much less than last year. It has been a fair season for cotton and it is yielding from three-quarters to a bale to the acre. About 150 bales will be ginned in Carlsbad, and over twice this amount at the Loving gin.

Notice is given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between James K. Hunt, E. G. Twitty and O. B. Bishop, and known as the firm of Hunt, Twitty & Bishop, has been mutually dissolved at Raton, as per contract, dated July 15th, 1909, and signed by all three members of the said firm. They will not be responsible for any debts contracted, made by any member of the late firm.

The territorial board of education is pleased with the report of educational conditions throughout the territory made by Superintendent J. E. Clark. The board has recognized the common school course of study recently compiled by the territorial superintendent and made provision for the granting of an eighth grade or grammar school certificate by the rural schools with the co-operation of the county superintendents.

Another bank filed incorporation papers at Santa Fe Saturday, the fourth since last Thursday. It is the New Mexico Bank and Trust company of Texico, Curry county. The capitalization is $15,000, divided into 150 shares. The incorporators and directors are: D. A. Lanthum, president, 140 shares; J. R. Stegall, cashier, 5 shares; E. G. Martin, Farwell, Tex., 5 shares, the former two being residents of Texico.

It has become known that a man who went to Santa Rosa last week and left his horse in Geo. H. Smith's yards, and who also had a bunch of horses at Puerto de Luna which he was offering to sell, had stolen the bunch from a ranch in Chaves county. He had sold about $400 worth, went to Santa Rosa and quietly disappeared. The authorities were anxious as to his whereabouts and more so when the man was in Chaves county.

H. B. Henning, of the bureau of immigration, with R. E. Wilson of the Santa Fe railroad, were at Clovis for a few hours the other day on their way to points in the Pecos valley, where they are arousing interest in the land and irrigation show which is to be held in Chicago late in November.

AT THE THEATRE

CORINNE AND HER BIG COMPANY IN "MILLE MISCHIEF"

Corinne will be seen here in the original production of the tuncful Viennese operetta "Mlle. Mischief," tomorrow night, under the management of Sam S. and Lee Shubert. The ever popular comedienne has been surrounded by a large company and chorus and the original English pony ballet.

Of all the imported comic operas "Mlle. Mischief" is said to present more angles of originality in the way of striking music, beautiful scenery and real comedy. The Shuberts contracted for the piece during the height of its run in Vienna and commissioned Sydney Rosenfeld to write an American book. This, in itself, implies that the piece, as it will be seen here after a long run in two Broadway theatres, is a musical comedy that takes rank with what composers are wont to designate as "comic opera."

ember and early in December. The Curry county exhibit which was taken to Albuquerque to the annual fair, has already been boxed and placed in storage at that place preparatory to shipping it to Chicago next month. Mr. Henning believes this the best time for New Mexico to make her showing before the people of the middle west.

Saturday afternoon, the Vaughn Trust and Savings Bank of Vaughn, filed incorporation papers in the office of the territorial secretary at Santa Fe. The capitalization is $15,000 divided into 150 shares. The incorporators and directors are: J. W. Ethieson, 50 shares, who is named as the New Mexico agent; Grant C. Otis, 50 shares; Joseph K. Monroe, 20 shares; J. L. Davis, 15 shares; J. T. Williams, 10 shares; Leonard A. Hardy, 5 shares.

R. G. Mullens, Herbert Wolcott of Alamogordo and S. W. Marrion, of Kansas City have been in Santa Rosa looking after a good investment and think the Agua Negra grant will about fill the bill. Mr. Wolcott, who is a younger brother of the late E. O. Wolcott, U. S. senator from Colorado, is a capitalist and is in New Mexico for the purpose of investment. Mr. Marrion is a prominent real estate dealer in Kansas City, Mo., and is interested in real estate all over the country and lately has had his eyes on New Mexico.

Kenneth R. Scott is now city attorney for Roswell and Roy Woolter is city marshal. The council there confirmed these appointments made by the mayor after accepting the resignations of City Attorney R. D. Bowers and City Marshal James Champlin. The withdrawal of these officials followed the upheaval in political circles regarding the enforcing of the ordinances against gambling and houses of ill repute. Bowers declared he did not have the co-operation of the police and Champlin quit because he said he was tired of being found fault with for non-enforcement of the laws. Champlin declares the accusation that he was not doing his duty is utterly false.

The people of the Mesilla valley have become thoroughly dissatisfied with the present inadequate telephone service and have taken a decided stand against W. E. Baker, the present manager. The equipment is old and behind the times. Through the efforts of Isidoro Armijo, Messrs. Charles E. Miller, Morgan and Posworth of the Automatic Telephone company and Mr. Humblin of the Bell company of Colorado, and also W. D. Murray of Silver City are in Las Cruces with the view of either buying out the local company or organizing a new one. In event those gentlemen can not make arrangements Mr. Armijo with several Las Cruces citizens will organize a company known as the Independent. Public sentiment is aroused strongly on the subject.

The Bed-Rock of Success

Lies in a keen, clear brain, backed by indomitable will and resolute energy. Such power comes from the splendid health that Dr. King's New Life Pills impart. They vitalize every organ and build up brain and body. J. A. Harmon, Lizemore, W. Va., writes: "They are the best pills I ever used." 25c at all druggists.
